IADC ANNUAL MEETING 2010

July 10 - 15 Hotel Arts § Barcelona, Spain

International Association of Defense Counsel
The IADC is headed to Spain’s most glamorous city in July! Barcelona has been described as a magnet for those who enjoy the good life. From its splendid seaside location, modernistic architecture, medieval roots, stunning art, Catalan culture, and outstanding dining opportunities, Barcelona is a city you will not want to miss. The location of our meeting, the Hotel Arts, is a world class, seaside hotel containing thirty-four floors of rooms with breathtaking views of the city and the Mediterranean. This hotel is a favorite of worldwide VIPS, and will be our very special home base for exploring this magnificent part of the world.

This location will also serve as the backdrop for internationally focused continuing education programs. CLE Program Chair Tripp Haston, CLE Committee Chair Regina Petty, and their Committees have really outdone themselves with sessions on managing the global law firm, piracy in the 21st Century, the ethical concerns of social networking, a global tour of trial skills, and more. In addition, we have Committee programming, as well as a special off-site program at the Barcelona Bar Association. Our need to think globally when approaching our practice continues to grow, and this schedule of sessions will be both useful and interesting.

To insure you have every opportunity to explore all of Barcelona, we have employed a local agency to provide an offering of daily tours to all of the city’s and region’s highlights. A preview of these tours is in this brochure, and more information will follow in the coming months. In addition, Carrousel Travel will provide a variety of pre and post-meeting tours. Exploring on your own, however, is easy to do in Barcelona. Many of its vibrant neighborhoods, museums, and architectural treasures are within walking distance of the hotel.

The special events we have planned for the Annual Meeting are designed to fully immerse you in the Catalan culture. The Welcome Reception, Theme Party, and Dinner Dance will reflect the spirit and vibrancy of Barcelona. You will be treated to the area’s finest music and entertainment. And, of course, some good old-fashioned American dancing!

We hope you will take advantage of this fantastic opportunity and join us on IADC’s exciting adventure in Spain.

Warm regards,
Jim and Sue Campbell
Managing the Global Law Firm
Moderator: Russell Stewart, Faegre & Benson, LLP, Denver, Colorado USA
Speakers: Dr. Pietro Brambilla, Senior Counsel Automotive, Daimler AG, Stuttgart, Germany
Julie Coletti, Chief Legal Officer, MEDRAD, Inc., Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania USA
Charna Gerstenhaber, Vice President and Head of Litigation, Novartis Pharmaceuticals Corporation, East Hanover, New Jersey USA
Bradley E. Lerman, Senior Vice President, Associate General Counsel and Chief Litigation Counsel, Pfizer Inc., New York, New York USA

As their companies follow economic growth and meet increasing consumer demand from China to Brazil to Indonesia, legal departments must adapt quickly and create new models to meet challenges of international competition. Join the discussion with senior in-house counsel from Pfizer, Daimler, Novartis, and MEDRAD on managing legal issues and coordinating litigation over multiple nationalities and jurisdictions. The panel will address challenges common to international manufacturers such as meeting the demands of conflicting national privacy laws, forum non conveniens and conflict of laws issues, and responding to demands of multiple regulatory authorities. The speakers also will discuss the selection and organization of national and international counsel, the coordination and supervision of product liability cases, current hot issues that cause insomnia for general counsel, and legal and economic challenges looming on the horizon in Europe and the Americas.

Piracy in the 21st Century: An Examination of How Present-Day Pirates are Impacting Legal, Political, Business and Insurance Concerns across International Boundaries
Speakers: CDR Peter R. Koehler, JAGC, USN, Asst. SJA, HQ USEUCOM, Stuttgart, Germany
Zach Phillips, Assoc. Editor, Business Insurance Magazine, New York, New York USA

Our panel of experts will examine the impact of modern day pirate attacks on insurers, businesses, governments and maritime interests. The panel will provide first-hand insight on matters ranging from the recent rescue of Capt. Richard Phillips by U.S. Navy Seals, underwriting maritime risks in the present market, and handling commercial claims arising out of pirate attacks, as well as war coverage, kidnap and ransom coverage and much, much more. This program promises to provide practitioners from every nation a foundation upon which to counsel clients whose interests are affected by the resurgence of this age-old problem.

Open Forum – The Iraq War: Legally-Justified Defensive Engagement or Illegal Invasion of a Sovereign Nation?
Open Forum Chair and Moderator: Christopher A. Duggan, Smith and Duggan LLP, Boston, Massachusetts USA
Speakers: Shannen W. Coffin, Steptoe & Johnson, LLP, Washington, District of Columbia USA
Philippe Sands, QC, Professor of Law and Director of the Centre on International Courts and Tribunals, University College London, London, England

Professor Philippe Sands and Shannen W. Coffin will present and debate the legality of and other issues related to the Iraq War. A Professor of Law and Director of the Centre on International Courts and Tribunals at University College London, Professor Sands authored the book Lawless World: America and the Making and Breaking of Global Rules from FDR’s Atlantic Charter to George W. Bush’s Illegal War in 2005. As former chief legal adviser to Vice President Dick Cheney and General Counsel to the Office of Vice President from 2005-2007, Mr. Coffin possesses a deep and unique perspective on the Iraq War and will no doubt be a worthy opponent to debate this controversial and important topic with Professor Sands.
As our world shrinks and becomes more interconnected, litigation is no exception to the phenomenon. Trials against corporate clients based on common claims are proceeding in forums around the globe. The manner in which each claim is presented differs based on the forum. In this interactive program, leading trial attorneys from three different continents will demonstrate advocacy based upon the uniqueness of each of their respective forums based on a common fact pattern.

10:45 a.m. - 12 p.m.

The Amanda Knox Trial: An American on Trial in Italy
Speakers: Giovanni Fanizza, Vice President - Region Europe of Gen Re, Madrid, Spain
Alessandro P. Giorgetti, Studio Legale Giorgetti, Milan, Italy
Giuseppe Guastella, Journalist, Il Corriere della Sera, Milan, Italy

Against the backdrop of a sensational Italian murder trial involving American Amanda Knox, an outstanding panel of journalists and attorneys discuss the role of the press, DNA evidence, and trial procedure in this fascinating case. This lengthy trial involving an American exchange student provides a fascinating window into differences in trial practices between a member nation of the European Union and the United States. It should be of interest to lawyers and spouses alike.

10:45 a.m. - 12 p.m.

Twitter-Dee and Twitter-Dumb: Ethical Concerns for Lawyers, Clients and Companies Using Internet Social Networking Sites
Speakers: Takis Kommatas, T.G. Kommatas & Associates Law Offices, Athens, Greece
Lana K. Varney, Fulbright & Jaworski, Austin, Texas USA

Electronic social networking continues to revolutionize global communication. Companies in many industries are re-evaluating how to maximize this new, largely untapped medium to interact with customers, clients and shareholders. This panel will address issues such as: How are companies using social networking? What regulations apply and what is the emerging regulatory landscape? What are the ethical issues arising from the use of social media?

8:30 - 10 a.m.

In the Matter of Governmental Interests v. Multi-National Corporations
Moderator: Christopher A. Callanan, Campbell, Campbell, Edwards & Conroy, Boston, Massachusetts USA
Speakers: Loren H. Brown, DLA Piper, New York City, New York USA
Joseph G. Petrosinelli, Williams & Connolly, Washington, District of Columbia USA
Anton Winkler, Senior Prosecutor, Bavarian State Government, Munich, Germany

Today’s headlines reflect the new reality that corporations can no longer view litigation risk as coming only from individuals or corporate competitors. More and more of our clients are subject to investigation and litigation from local, national, and international governmental bodies. The stakes are always high, and the widely publicized nature of these matters presents unique challenges. Our panel includes those charged with prosecution of alleged international bribery by corporate entities as well as those experienced with the defense of such entities against claims of corporate malfeasance in Africa, Europe and the United States. The panelists will share their pers-
The Latest in Europe . . . and Implications for the U.S.

Moderator: Christopher Scott D’Angelo, Montgomery, McCracken, Walker & Rhoads, LLP, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, USA

Speakers: Cinzia Altomare, Manager, Global Casualty Facultative, Gen Re, Milan, Italy
Duncan Fairgrieve, Fellow in Comparative Law and Director of the Tort Law Centre, British Institute of International Comparative Law, London, England and Paris, France
Rachael Mulheron, Professor of Law, Queen Mary University of London, London, England
Santiago de Nadal, SNAbogados, Professor of Law, Universitat Pompeu Fabra, Barcelona, Spain

Everyone has heard of the significant differences between civil law and common law legal systems. The former has no depositions and usually little or no discovery (except for the documents each party wishes to disclose) or witness evidence, and certainly no cross-examination as a common law lawyer understands it. Yet, justice is done just as well in civil law and in common law jurisdictions, which suggests that preconceptions on either side that their system is “better” are wrong; they are simply different. The International Committee, in cooperation with its Barcelona members, will present a program designed to blow away misconceptions around the differences between the systems. It will give members the opportunity to visit the Barcelona Bar Association (and, on request only, its famous library containing legal documents dating back to 1092), meet Spanish litigators and a Spanish judge, and have the Spanish/civil law system explained and debate the differences. All participants will leave with a better understanding and appreciation for the strengths of both systems, and when next faced with the prospect of litigating in the other system, will “just do it”.

Buses will depart for the Barcelona Bar Association at 2 p.m. from the Hotel Arts’ main entrance. Following the CLE program, a cocktail reception will be held onsite at the Barcelona Bar Association. Buses will return to the hotel at 7:45 p.m. The registration fee is $50 USD and covers roundtrip transportation and the reception.

Please register early.
Maximum attendance is 50 people.
The international character of products liability law has been highlighted by recent litigation over defective foreign pet food and dangerous toys, in addition to hundreds of millions of dollars of claims and lawsuits arising out of the importation of allegedly defective drywall. What legal recourse is available for a defective product manufactured in a country other than the one in which the damage is caused? How do the legal systems of different countries resolve the liability and damages issues and how do they interact with each other? Our panel of lawyers from the United States, European Union, Asia, and Australia, will take us through how a Chinese drywall claim would be handled in their respective jurisdictions.

As corporate data volumes continue to grow exponentially, the escalating burden of dealing with electronic information can inhibit access to justice, increase regulatory and litigation risk, and threaten the quality of internal investigations. This session addresses the ethical implications and legal consequences in North American and European jurisdictions of litigators’ decisions about how to search for relevant information. In addition to understanding ethical considerations and judicial perspectives regarding search quality, the audience will emerge better prepared to maximize defensibility and help clients contain costs in the face of electronic data challenges.
After Dinner Gatherings
Saturday, July 10, Sunday July 11, and Tuesday, July 13, 10:30 p.m. – 12:00 a.m.
Wrap up your evening with a nightcap and camaraderie at the After Dinner Gatherings held at the Hotel Arts Champagne Bar on the lobby level. Beer, house wine, and non-alcoholic beverages are complimentary with your name badge.

Morning Run and Walk
Saturday through Wednesday – Morning Run: 7:00 a.m. Morning Walk: 8:00 a.m.
Get the blood pumping in the morning and get to know other attendees at the same time! Whether you run or walk, there is time each morning for you to get moving before the day’s activities.

On Assignment in Barcelona with Kat Silverglate
Sunday, July 11, 10:00 a.m. and Wednesday, July 14, 3:00 p.m.
Grab your cameras and join Kat Silverglate on assignment in Barcelona! Participants will enjoy a lecture on Sunday morning equipping them for a photojournalistic adventure through the city. At the end of the lecture, attendees will be broken up into teams and each team will be given a photo assignment of the city signs, food, buildings, people, local color, etc. On Wednesday, the group will reunited and participate in a lively open forum discussion lead by Kat on each team’s findings and techniques for spotting, and taking, the perfect shot. Kat will put together a coffee table book of the best photos submitted by each participant for all to buy as a memory of their trip. The best shot will become the cover shot of the final book and the winning shot in each category will be chosen for the title page to each chapter!

Kat is a writer, speaker, artist and photographer. Her techniques include Photocrylics ® paintings, Wood Adhesion Photography™, restorations, graphics for trials and traditional photography on canvas, wood, fabric, and more.

This activity is open to all attendees. The registration fee is $35 USD per person including print materials. Attendees must bring their own cameras.

Meet and Greet Breakfasts
Sunday, Wednesday, and Thursday mornings, 7:30 - 9:30 a.m.; Monday and Tuesday mornings, 7:00 - 9:30 a.m.
Start the morning off with your IADC friends at a breakfast buffet each day to network or plan your day. The breakfasts are included in your registration. Name badge is required.

Member Mix and Mingles
Sunday, July 11 and Tuesday, July 13, 7:00 – 8:00 p.m.
Meet up with friends at the Hotel Arts Champagne Bar on the lobby level before going out for the evening. These receptions are cash bar.
Sponsored by Thomas G. Oakes Associates

Please wear your name badge at all IADC events.
We are delighted that so many children are coming to Barcelona. However, two cautionary statements are appropriate:

1. Barcelona is a large city. As in any large city, you must take care and be alert to your surroundings. If children go into the city, the IADC encourages and suggests that adults should accompany them.

2. The LEGAL drinking age in Barcelona is 18, but it is possible in some establishments for younger teens to be served alcohol. Please note that IADC will adhere to the legal drinking age and alcohol consumption by children under 18 at IADC events is strictly prohibited. We have asked the Hotel Arts and the IADC staff to be vigilant in enforcing this policy. We appreciate your cooperation and assistance in this regard.

Book Review
Twilight by Stephanie Meyer
Tuesday, July 13, 9:30 – 10:30 a.m.
We will discuss the book that started the Twilight phenomenon at this family-friendly book review.

Bella Swan’s move to Forks, a small, perpetually rainy town in Washington, could have been the most boring move she ever made. But once she meets the mysterious and alluring Edward Cullen, Bella’s life takes a thrilling and terrifying turn. Up until now, Edward has managed to keep his vampire identity a secret in this small community, but now nobody is safe, especially Bella, the person Edward holds most dear.

Deeply romantic and extraordinarily suspenseful, Twilight captures the struggle between defying our instincts and satisfying our desires. This is a love story with bite.

Thank you to the Book Review Chairs Amy Campbell, Colby Magratten, and Alli Kenney.

Teens Night Out at the Hard Rock Café
Wednesday, July 14, 6:45 – 10:00 p.m.
Join other IADC teens for dinner and a fun night out at the Hard Rock Cafe – Barcelona. Buses will depart from Hotel Arts’ main entrance at 6:45 p.m. and will return to the hotel around 10:00 p.m. Teens are invited to join their parents for dancing at the Dinner Dance in the hotel’s ballroom.

The registration fee is $135 USD per person and includes roundtrip transportation, supervision, and dinner.

IADC Kid’s Night In
Wednesday, July 14, 7:00 – 11:00 p.m.
Join IADC Junior Children for a night of fun and games at the Hotel Arts. Enjoy a good old fashioned American dinner along with arts-and-crafts, games and a movie to wind down the evening.

The registration fee is $90 USD per person and includes supervision, games and activities, and dinner.

Barcelona

Barcelona is an accessible city, not too big and not too small. Its size makes it simple for visitors to explore the rich diversity of cultural, recreational, and commercial venues. With stunning beaches, world class museums, bountiful shopping opportunities, sizzling nightlife and the uniquely preserved medieval Barri Gòtic, Europe’s best preserved Gothic quarter, vibrant, chic Barcelona is the epitome of European cool. Barcelona has the dynamic and open personality so typical of cities by the sea. As the only major European metropolis on the beach, it is the perfect place to relax, stroll and enjoy its surroundings. Barcelona is also known as the capital of Modernism and offers constant surprises with hundreds of architectural treasures.

Customs

In Barcelona, and throughout Catalonia, there are two official languages: Catalan, the language of the Catalans, and Spanish, the official language of Spain. As in most European countries and also in Catalonia, GMT is the time system used in Barcelona. Clocks are two hours ahead of GMT in summer.

The euro is Spain’s official currency. Foreign currency can be exchanged at savings banks, or ‘Caixes’ and banks. Bureaux de change are also open every day in Barcelona city centre, and at the main railway stations and the Estació del Nord bus station, where they have longer opening hours. Using ATM cards is the easiest way to exchange money but please note there usually is a service fee added.

Lunch and dinner are usually eaten a little later than in the rest of Europe. Most restaurants open from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. for lunch, and from 8 p.m. until 11 p.m. for dinner. Although in high volume tourist months like July you will find many restaurants open throughout the day. Tipping is not expected, though welcome, and people usually leave 5% (or small change) if they are satisfied with the service. Many restaurants and hotels include a service charge as part of the bill.

Shops are usually open from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. and 4:30 to 8 or 8:30 p.m. In the Barcelona city centre, most shops don’t close at lunchtime and large shopping center and department stores are open until 10 p.m. in summer.

Barcelona and Personal Safety

Attendees are advised to be especially attentive to personal belongings. Remain alert and take necessary precautions in major tourist areas such as the Ramblas, the Gothic Quarter and other tourist sites, airport, beaches, train stations, etc. To ensure that you have a trouble-free stay in Barcelona, the following safety measures are recommended:

• Spanish law requires that you carry official identification documents at all times. Photocopy your passport, travel documents, prescriptions, etc. before leaving home.
• Keep your passport, important documents and the majority of your money in your hotel safety deposit box, not in your room. Carry a photocopy of your passport or identity documentation and only a limited amount of cash while you are out.
• Only use certified metered taxis (yellow and black) from the airport in Barcelona.
• Watch your luggage, especially handbags, cameras, video cameras, etc.
• When walking around typical tourist spots such as the Ramblas and the Gothic Quarter, be especially vigilant of handbags and wallets. Make sure you are aware of your wallet and purse at all times.
Airport and Taxi Service
Barcelona, situated on the western coast of the Mediterranean, is very well connected. The Barcelona International Airport (BCN), located 20 minutes from the city center, has daily flights to Europe’s leading cities and extensive international connections including non-stop flights from New York, Atlanta, and Philadelphia.

City taxis are easily accessible at the airport just steps away from the baggage claim area. The average rate for a transfer from the airport to the hotel is €25. An additional surcharge may apply in the event of excess luggage.

Weather
The average temperature in Barcelona in July ranges from a high of 81˚F/27˚C to a low of 66˚F/19˚C. Weather can always be unpredictable though so we encourage you to check the forecast as the meeting gets closer at www.weather.com.

Attire
Resort casual attire is appropriate for all meetings, the Welcome Reception and Theme Party. The Dinner Dance will be coat and tie/cocktail attire. The meeting spaces are well air-conditioned so you may want to bring light jackets or sweaters.

Special Needs
If you will have special needs during the meeting (i.e. diet or accessibility) please let the IADC office know in advance of the meeting by calling 312.368.1494, or send an e-mail to Rebecca Zurcher, Director of Meetings, at rzurcher@iadclaw.org

IADC Cancellation Policy
The current refund policy is as follows.
• CASH REFUND, less a $125 processing fee and applicable credit card fees, will be made if a written notice of cancellation is received by the IADC office more than 30 days prior to the first day of the meeting.
• NO REFUNDS will be made if written notice of cancellation is received by the IADC 30 days or less before the first day of the meeting.
• In special circumstances, such as illness or unforeseen family emergencies, a member may seek a future meeting credit by written request to the IADC office immediately upon learning of the special circumstance.
• All credit requests will be reported to the Finance Committee and their decision with regard to such requests is final.

Easy Payment Options
For your convenience, all registration and activity fees may be paid by check, wire transfer, Visa, American Express or MasterCard. If paying by check, please make sure it is in U.S. currency and mail it to the International Association of Defense Counsel, 303 West Madison, Suite 925, Chicago, IL 60606. If paying by wire transfer, please send information to JPMorgan Chase Bank, Chicago, Illinois, Routing # 071000013, Account # 644403099, Swift Code CHASUS33.
You must register for the meeting with the IADC prior to reserving rooms at the hotel. You will receive a code with your meeting confirmation that will allow you to reserve rooms at Hotel Arts Barcelona. Register for the meeting at www.iadclaw.org or fill out this form and mail to: 303 West Madison, Suite 925, Chicago IL 60606 or fax to 312.368.1854, or e-mail Rebecca Zurcher at rzurcher@iadclaw.org.
