The Barcelona Bar Association (ICAB), the Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona (UAB), and the Academy of European Law (ERA) are pleased to invite you to the 7th biennial European Jurists Forum, to be held in Barcelona from the 18th to the 20th of April, 2013.

We are confident that the Forum will be an outstanding event for the European legal community. Over a span of three days, current topics of European law will be discussed in three working groups, thus providing a unique opportunity for participants to contribute to the shaping of the European legal sphere.

WE WOULD BE DELIGHTED TO WELCOME YOU TO BARCELONA!

The European Jurists’ Forum (EJF) has historically been organized biennially across Europe. Nuremberg was host to the first EJF in 2001, followed by Athens in 2003, Geneva in 2005, Vienna in 2007, Budapest in 2009, and Luxembourg in 2011. The 2013 European Jurists’ Forum will begin with an opening plenary meeting directly proceeded by the division of participants into working groups. These working groups traditionally congregate in three half-day sessions, allowing for a deeper examination of sub-topics. The format will allow 9 sessions, 3 per general topic, with 2 rapporteurs per session, plus a varying number of participants in the separate round tables.

The subjects of the 7th EJF 2013 in Barcelona are currently under deliberation. The following three main topics are currently being considered:

A. PUBLIC LAW TITLE: EU MIGRATION LAW AND POLICY

1. European Migration Policy
   · Update on Schengen
   · Immigration and citizenship- Integration policy in the EU

2. European Asylum Policy
   · The EU asylum system: challenges and shortcomings
   · The common visa policy

3. Free Movement of Persons in the Euro-Mediterranean Zone

B. CRIMINAL LAW

1. Further Harmonisation of European Criminal Law
   · New technologies and criminal procedure
   · The defence in criminal justice cooperation

2. Criminal Liability of Legal Persons
   · Accumulated criminal liability of physical and moral persons
   · Disparity of offences which moral persons can commit

3. Towards a European Public Prosecutor
   · Proposal to create of an EPP Office from Eurojust
   · Role and competences of an EPP in criminal justice cooperation
